

Things To Do:

The National Zoo: Offer glimpses of more than 5000 animals. Home too many rare and endangered species, the zoo shelters residents in natural habitats. The most popular attraction is the giant pandas, Mei Xiang and Tian Tian. Come spend the day at the National Zoo.

The White House: The most popular Attraction in D.C. includes free guided tours of the White House. Don't expect to meet the president but you may catch a glimpse of him at times.

The Smithsonian Institution: come see the Air & Space Museum, The National Museum of American History and The National Museum of the American Indian and so much more!

Washington DC Monumental: Walk around to see the many memorials of DC, such as the Washington Monument, The Lincoln Memorial and Vietnam Memorial. Most of the monuments are within a short walk of each other and are near the reflecting pool of the Washington DC Mall.

JFK's Old House: John F. Kennedy lived in a historic brick building in Georgetown referred to as the red house, before moving into the White House.

Navy Museum: At the Navy Museum you can see various naval artifacts, old ship equipment and much more. You can even see submarine periscopes and world war two gun mounts.

The stakes are raised as we gear up for another round at the Showplace Arena. Teams will need to bring their best to compete for a chance to be named Maryland Cup Champions. Don't miss this thrilling event and your chance to earn a US Finals bid!
